Agreement on Korea Asked By Bridges

A "positive proposal on Korea," calling for a national policy to promote "the collapse of Communist power," has been submitted to the American people by the ranking Republican member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Styles Bridges, of New Hampshire. The detailed plan, timed for consideration immediately after the election, is in the November issue of the American Mercury.

"We can't win in Korea," Senator Bridges declares, "but we can't withdraw to peace, so we can't withdraw at all. We have to stay, not in despair but with new resolution. We must stay as part of a world plan with one clearly proclaimed objective: the ultimate disarming of Communism."

The senator calls for a great national debate on what to do now about the Korean war. "This debate," he says, "must be conducted by patriots who are seeking neither partisan advantage nor the vindication of past position. The issue must be proposed action, and from this debate must come understanding and new nation resolution."

Senator Bridges asks first for national agreement on what he calls the "fact" of the war. "We are at war," he says, "and we are likely to be at war for many years. The President we have elected will be a war President; our economy will continue to be a war economy. Our taxes will be high; and our sons will be drafted into the military."

"There is no parallel latitude or national boundary," he declares, "on which we can sign an armistice" and "go home." We are in a great world power struggle which must end in the disarmament of our enemy or in defeat for America."

The senator has had a prominent role in all the disputes over our Asiatic policy, including the MacArthur hearings.

He calls for nation agreement on a second "fact": the "fact" that China, the heart of Asia, has been lost and can be regained "only on that day, probably distant, when armed Communist collapse in Asia and our idea prevails."

"Our immediate task," he sets forth, "is to understand, enumerate, and then to rally our Asiatic allies. And these allies, to the everlasting credit of America, are numerous. For years we have heard little but talk about how many millions of Asiatics are arrayed against us. What we need to recognize now is that there are even more millions of Asiatics waiting on American leadership to be aroused against Communism."

To implant his proposed policy for applying "maximum pressure" against the Asiatic periphery of the Communist world," Senator Bridges makes these suggestions:

1. That there be no political restrictions of weapons in the field against armed Communists.

2. That all merchant ships bound for Communist ports in Asia be required to halt at Singapore, Manila, or Tokyo, so that their cargo can be certified as proceeding at our advantage.

3. That the Chinese Communists be required to live in fear of commando raids and armed rebellion.

"Has the time come when it can be said that American policy safeguards the sleep of tyrants?" the senator asks. "Our policy in Asia, as in the rest of the world should never contribute to the security of Communist individuals or governments."

AUXILIARY SEEKS GIFTS FOR VETERANS AT HOSPITALS

AT RUMIFORD MES OFFICE

At the Christmas season draws near our thoughts go to gifts for the members of our families and friends. How many of you think of the disabled veterans in our hospitals who are not able to go shopping, yet would like to remember their wives, children or parents?

The American Legion Auxiliary, each year sponsor a Gift Shop at each Veterans' Hospital. These men have a chance to look over the display of gifts and choose one for each member of his family whom he wishes to remember. Then these are gift wrapped, tagged and mailed by volunteer workers, to the person designated by the veteran as coming from him.

It takes a lot of gifts for the hundreds of disabled veterans we have. These are furnished by the different Auxiliary Units in the state and by generous people who are glad to help.

Couldn't each family in Bethel give just one gift? The local Unit will send their box on Nov. 25 and if anyone wishes to donate won't you call any Auxiliary member and they will call for it.

Gifts and toys for children, ladies' and men's gifts are what are needed. Let's make the box from Bethel be the best ever.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday evening. Members were asked to bring their gifts for the Gift Shop to the next meeting.

The Auxiliary voted to sponsor the Girl Scouts.

Adeline Dexter, Rosaline Lausser and Hilda Donahue will work at the School Fair, Nov. 21.

Mrs Rosaline Lausser has charge of the program for next meeting.

Mrs Selma Chapman and Mrs Hilda Donahue are in charge of the gifts for Christmas.

Preceding the meeting a pot-luck supper was enjoyed by Auxiliary and Legion members with movies at the beginning of October.

LADIES CLUB MET LAST THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Ladies Club met with Mrs Charles Merrill last Thursday afternoon with 27 present. Mrs Henry Shaw and Mrs Henry Bishop were co-hostesses and the program was in charge of Miss Eva Bean.

The following committee for the Christmas Fair, Dec. 4, were announced by Mrs Godwin Apron table, Mrs W F Clark, Mrs W F Clark gift table, Mrs G A Poste.

ments, but to their insecurity. "When we get back to this polity" Senator Bridges insists in closing, "then the armies of Communism which once seemed so formidable will scatter as they have always scattered before individual resolution. In the age-old battle between the selected phalanx of tyranny and the patient crushed forces of the free, with his muscle, there should never be any doubt as to where America's sympathies lie."

That the Chinese Communists be required to live in fear of commando raids and armed rebellion,

"Has the time come when it can be said that American policy safeguards the sleep of tyrants?" the senator asks. "Our policy in Asia, as in the rest of the world should never contribute to the security of Communist individuals or governments."

1. That there be no political restrictions of weapons in the field against armed Communists.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. (Matthew 6:12)

Read Luke 17:10.

DURING the occupation of the Philippines, a chaplain brought medical supplies to the prisoners on Corregidor. What he had done was discovered. He was imprisoned. One day a soldier injured him by striking him in the back of the neck with the butt of a rifle. Later the chaplain was forced to spend fifteen hours a day in an uncomfortable position.

In his agony, he began praying the Lord's Prayer. But when he came to the words, "Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us," he paused. Could he forgive one who had been so cruel to him, and who had denied medical aid to those who were so badly in need of it? After a long inward struggle, he finally

The LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I just been perusin' a piece about Pennsylvania, and how in that land of fine cooks and delectable dishes, diners like panhams and 100 others, they are upsetting the socialist apple cart arguments. Arguments that Govt. operated and dominated electric power is the one and only way to make a State boom and flourish like the biblical green bay tree. Pennsylvania is flourishing. It is amongst the lowest of all states in public ownership of its power. It has but a little over one per cent of its power publicly owned. On the Pacific coast public power runs as high as 50 per cent. And also as especially in the Pacific Northwest where socialist power practically dominates the picture, the threat of power shortages loom and constantly.

If scarcity is what a district craves, its best bet is to invite the Govt. in. With same will come far exempt dams, bureau boys galore, more taxes on your own damnable folks who sit around and pay little heed, thinking it is not their baby, this creeps socialist stuff. They are not on the ball if you are dentist, plumber, barber, preacher, bartender or what you are breeding a scab on your very own future when you sit idly by, as a result. Govt. drives into your town with its fanfare blaring and flags waving. There is misery in the off-

GOULD ACADEMY

GOULD 7-FRYEBURG 0

Five wins and two ties gives Gould a record that seemed unbeatable when the team started practicing late in September. The 1952 team will be rated near the top of its class, but the fact that the Lyndon Institute, Berlin and Fryeburg games do not count in the standing keeps the Huskies out of the running for the State Championship.

The final game was a thriller with Fryeburg proving a worthy foe. They out played the locals during the first half as Wenzel, Blake and Hastings ripped off steady gains and threatened the goal line on numerous occasions.

The Huskies however redeemed themselves in the last two periods. Midway through the third period, they started a steady drive that netted 11 em 60 yards on five first downs in a row. This landed them on the Fryeburg 7 yard line where, on the next play, they were penalized 15 yards for illegal use of the elbows. Then Fryeburg intercepted a pass to end the threat.

Hard running Shand ripped off nine yards and then Fryeburg took to the air, only to have Melville intercept and Gould was again on the march as the quarter ended.

In the final period, two first downs put the ball on the 4½ yard line. On the next play Burnham cracked over his own right side for the only T.D. of the game. Baron's placekick split the uprights and Gould led 7 to 0.

The visitors fought back with determination but after two first downs in a row, Gould recovered a Fryeburg fumble and hung onto the ball until the whistle ended one of Gould's best seasons in a number of years.

Statistics showed that Gould made 10 first downs and Fryeburg 11. The Huskies passed only four times with three complete for a total of 32 yards. One was intercepted. The visitors passed 12 times making good on six of them, most of which were short, and only totals of 18 yards. Four went incomplete and two were intercepted.

DO YOUR crocheted rag rugs tend to lose their shape? If you make them in six-inch squares, then alternate by sewing together horizontal and vertical ones, the rug will be more firm and will wear better.

When plastic table cloths tear, use the portions of them which remain good as small aprons for yourself, for covers for appliances or refrigerator bags.

Your small lamp shades which you're ready to discard can make very attractive hat stands. Cover them with wrapping paper or wallpaper in gay colors to match or contrast with your closet.

Sewing boxes have a way of getting cluttered, but not if you go through them periodically and make a list of what they contain. Paste this on the inside cover of the box and always check supplies on hand before you buy anything, and thereby duplicate it.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Bing Cherry Dessert
Serves 8-10

1 package cherry-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 1/2 ounce package cream cheese
1 No. 2 1/2 size can Bing cherries, pitted

Dissolve gelatin in hot water according to manufacturers' directions. Place cream cheese in bowl and beat until soft with hand or electric beater. Drain cherries, reserving 1/2 cup juice. Add juice slowly to cheese, continuing to beat for 20 seconds. Stir in gelatin mixture and add cherries. Pour into a quart mold or small molds which have been dipped in cold water. Chill, unmold and serve with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

To protect the sleeves of good dresses and sweaters while working about the house, especially in the kitchen before you get a chance to change clothes, place two old shirt sleeves in a drawer. These can be taken out in a minute and put on.

Attach a recipe rack or a napkin rack high in your hall in which to place letters and mail so they won't get lost before family returns home.

May you saw it in the CITIZEN.

Insurance Official Urges Unity In Efforts To Prevent Road Accidents

A combination of firm law enforcement and a united effort by professional accident prevention groups to organize aroused public support was urged Wednesday at Louisville, Ky., by J. Dewey Dorsett, general manager of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, as the only method of quickly solving the nation's traffic accident crisis.

In an address before the Kentucky Association of Insurance Agents, Mr. Dorsett declared "that the near collapse of law enforcement and the incompetence of traffic safety organizations, resulting from 'biting' personal interests and jealousies" were responsible for the failure of the public to understand the seriousness of the traffic problem.

Mr. Dorsett blamed misunderstanding by motorists and disregard of their obligations as operators of automobiles on lenient officials and the diverse aims of safety specialists. Before real headway can be made toward an adequate permanent solution of our national traffic crisis, he said, it must be made "imperative to every driver that the use of a car is a privilege that is granted under license and must be exercised only in compliance with specific legal conditions that are established for the protection of others."

Turning to the question of who is responsible for today's dangerous highways, Mr. Dorsett said:

The legislatures and municipal governing bodies are responsible for not giving the police departments enough men to patrol the streets and highways adequately day and night for failing to make a driver licensing law in the light of vastly changed and still changing traffic conditions and for failing to give the motor vehicle and licensing authorities sufficient personnel to put only qualified operators behind the wheel of an automobile.

The politicians are responsible for interfering with and reversing the administration of the laws governing the operation and ownership of motor vehicles. Nothing has contributed more to public indifference to road safety than the lack of enforcement of any kind of accident punishing penalties and modification of present traffic legislation to measure up to the fact that drivers were becoming less afraid of public office over the years.

There is a factor granted to the enforcement of traffic laws that is the greatest of all—worst I do not question the accuracy of what the courts are responsible for in compelling respect for the law by holding penalties that are stiff in case and every offense.

I do not suggest that everyone should be sent to jail the first time he violates a traffic law. I do suggest that stiff fines should be the sole penalty for first offenders.

Third offenders should be put off the road permanently and if there are no cars in the state or injury to a person, a jail sentence should be mandatory.

I suggest that offenders should be required to take a driving test against the public safety and given a suspended license.

Another answer is to get the public to think about the cost of traffic accidents to both human and economic terms. We don't have it today. With respect to fatality statistics, we now obtain reasonably accurate statistics, but few are willing to say they are down to the last man, woman and child.

With respect to injury statistics,

Pipeline Employees Hold Federation Meeting at New Berlin House

The Northern Federation of Pipe Line employees who work for the Portland Pipe Line Corporation met Saturday night at the New Berlin House for their annual get-together and "big feed." Sixteen of the boys from North Waterford, Farmington and Lancaster were present.

The supper was held in the cozy, decorated dining room downstairs with a special table reserved for the young couples. Mrs. Natalee Jeffords gave us a royal welcome and Dean Bullock and Lorrie Wagner did a swell job serving. The Portland boys, as usual, won the honors of singing forth another original strain, "It's for You, Rings and Americans."

The girls' party had a festive touch, too. The bunting took the form of white, with red stripes in blue and yellow tape. Misses adorned the sides of the room and matched the curtains which were in red. Chandeliers were in the ceiling sparkled with hundreds of ornaments. A cluster of tiny Christmas trees adorned tables at the entrance while on the further side of the room a tall Christmas plant gave a lift to the ceiling. The dining table was tastily decorated with four glass tumbler sets with a single star each covered with water. Then soup, gravy, meat and mashed potato, beans and dinner, steak, ended off with apple pie and ice cream.

These evening were Fred Pearce, Vice Chairman; Harold Perkins, Robert Hines, Judy Fahey, Shirley Gossard of the North Waterford station; George Wheeler, of the Westport Tom Corrigan, George Murphy, Herman Emery, Sam Neal, Anna Bishop, from the East Waterford station; Bob Conroy, the Farmington Foster Parsons, and the Lancaster station.

Brownies

The Second Grade Brownies met Wednesday with 10 present. We painted milk weed pods and ourselves a little too. We enjoyed Normie Jean's refreshments. The secretary's report was read and dues were collected. We played a game and voted to pay for our Brownie Pine out of dues. We voted to paint again next week.

Norma Jean Kimball, Secretary.

Troop 2 Brownies held their regular meeting Saturday afternoon with their leaders Mrs. George Parsons and Mrs. Diana Douglass Jr.

Topic for the meeting was "Good Grooming." We learned a quick and easy way to clean our number. Our winter meetings were planned and we voted to make "Minature Brownies" as a winter project. We are also starting our Christmas Stocking. In this we will put used toys, clothing or whatever we happen to have we can afford to give to some needy boy or girl. Mrs. Douglass held the interest of all by showing part of "World Book" to us. We could have listened to this for hours on end, but the clock said it was time for our "Good Nite Brownie Song." We have only one fault with our Brownie meetings and that is they are only half long enough!

Brownie Scouts Troop IV met Wednesday afternoon at the home of their leader, with 18 members and one visitor present. After dividing into three groups, one group made biscuits, one made cookies and the other made corn.

Grade III Brownies met at Mrs. Anne Young's Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Esther Brown and Mrs. Ruth Young assisted. They worked on scrapbooks. Next week Mrs. Esther Brown will entertain the girls at her home. It will be a Thanksgiving party.
